Abused children need your help.

Every year, more than 20,000 Dallas County children are reported abused or neglected. Some of them must be removed from their homes because it isn’t safe for them to remain. Many enter foster care and wait for the complex, often lengthy process in which a judge will determine where they may safely and permanently live. During this time they may move from one temporary home to another, never knowing what will happen next.

This is where you step in.

Dallas CASA is an organization of volunteers who are voices for abused and neglected children in court. For many children, a CASA volunteer is the only constant during a frightening, uncertain time. Few volunteer roles have such a critical and immediate impact on the life of a child as that of a CASA volunteer.

What does it take to be a CASA?

You can be the difference.

Abused children need your help.

Every year, more than 20,000 Dallas County children are reported abused or neglected. Some of them must be removed from their homes because it isn’t safe for them to remain. Many enter foster care and wait for the complex, often lengthy process in which a judge will determine where they may safely and permanently live. During this time they may move from one temporary home to another, never knowing what will happen next.

This is where you step in.

Dallas CASA is an organization of volunteers who are voices for abused and neglected children in court. For many children, a CASA volunteer is the only constant during a frightening, uncertain time. Few volunteer roles have such a critical and immediate impact on the life of a child as that of a CASA volunteer.

Be the difference.

Volunteer.

To learn more about becoming a CASA volunteer or other ways to help, call 214-827-8961 or visit dallascasa.org

Volunteer.

You can be the difference.

Abused children need your help.

Every year, more than 20,000 Dallas County children are reported abused or neglected. Some of them must be removed from their homes because it isn’t safe for them to remain. Many enter foster care and wait for the complex, often lengthy process in which a judge will determine where they may safely and permanently live. During this time they may move from one temporary home to another, never knowing what will happen next.

This is where you step in.

Dallas CASA is an organization of volunteers who are voices for abused and neglected children in court. For many children, a CASA volunteer is the only constant during a frightening, uncertain time. Few volunteer roles have such a critical and immediate impact on the life of a child as that of a CASA volunteer.

Be the difference.

Volunteer.

To learn more about becoming a CASA volunteer or other ways to help, call 214-827-8961 or visit dallascasa.org

Volunteer.

You can be the difference.

Abused children need your help.

Every year, more than 20,000 Dallas County children are reported abused or neglected. Some of them must be removed from their homes because it isn’t safe for them to remain. Many enter foster care and wait for the complex, often lengthy process in which a judge will determine where they may safely and permanently live. During this time they may move from one temporary home to another, never knowing what will happen next.

This is where you step in.

Dallas CASA is an organization of volunteers who are voices for abused and neglected children in court. For many children, a CASA volunteer is the only constant during a frightening, uncertain time. Few volunteer roles have such a critical and immediate impact on the life of a child as that of a CASA volunteer.

Be the difference.

Volunteer.

To learn more about becoming a CASA volunteer or other ways to help, call 214-827-8961 or visit dallascasa.org

Volunteer.

You can be the difference.

Abused children need your help.

Every year, more than 20,000 Dallas County children are reported abused or neglected. Some of them must be removed from their homes because it isn’t safe for them to remain. Many enter foster care and wait for the complex, often lengthy process in which a judge will determine where they may safely and permanently live. During this time they may move from one temporary home to another, never knowing what will happen next.

This is where you step in.

Dallas CASA is an organization of volunteers who are voices for abused and neglected children in court. For many children, a CASA volunteer is the only constant during a frightening, uncertain time. Few volunteer roles have such a critical and immediate impact on the life of a child as that of a CASA volunteer.

Be the difference.

Volunteer.

To learn more about becoming a CASA volunteer or other ways to help, call 214-827-8961 or visit dallascasa.org

Volunteer.

You can be the difference.

Abused children need your help.

Every year, more than 20,000 Dallas County children are reported abused or neglected. Some of them must be removed from their homes because it isn’t safe for them to remain. Many enter foster care and wait for the complex, often lengthy process in which a judge will determine where they may safely and permanently live. During this time they may move from one temporary home to another, never knowing what will happen next.

This is where you step in.

Dallas CASA is an organization of volunteers who are voices for abused and neglected children in court. For many children, a CASA volunteer is the only constant during a frightening, uncertain time. Few volunteer roles have such a critical and immediate impact on the life of a child as that of a CASA volunteer.

Be the difference.

Volunteer.

To learn more about becoming a CASA volunteer or other ways to help, call 214-827-8961 or visit dallascasa.org

Volunteer.

You can be the difference.

Abused children need your help.

Every year, more than 20,000 Dallas County children are reported abused or neglected. Some of them must be removed from their homes because it isn’t safe for them to remain. Many enter foster care and wait for the complex, often lengthy process in which a judge will determine where they may safely and permanently live. During this time they may move from one temporary home to another, never knowing what will happen next.

This is where you step in.

Dallas CASA is an organization of volunteers who are voices for abused and neglected children in court. For many children, a CASA volunteer is the only constant during a frightening, uncertain time. Few volunteer roles have such a critical and immediate impact on the life of a child as that of a CASA volunteer.

Be the difference.

Volunteer.

To learn more about becoming a CASA volunteer or other ways to help, call 214-827-8961 or visit dallascasa.org

Volunteer.

You can be the difference.

Abused children need your help.

Every year, more than 20,000 Dallas County children are reported abused or neglected. Some of them must be removed from their homes because it isn’t safe for them to remain. Many enter foster care and wait for the complex, often lengthy process in which a judge will determine where they may safely and permanently live. During this time they may move from one temporary home to another, never knowing what will happen next.

This is where you step in.

Dallas CASA is an organization of volunteers who are voices for abused and neglected children in court. For many children, a CASA volunteer is the only constant during a frightening, uncertain time. Few volunteer roles have such a critical and immediate impact on the life of a child as that of a CASA volunteer.

Be the difference.

Volunteer.

To learn more about becoming a CASA volunteer or other ways to help, call 214-827-8961 or visit dallascasa.org

Volunteer.

You can be the difference.

Abused children need your help.

Every year, more than 20,000 Dallas County children are reported abused or neglected. Some of them must be removed from their homes because it isn’t safe for them to remain. Many enter foster care and wait for the complex, often lengthy process in which a judge will determine where they may safely and permanently live. During this time they may move from one temporary home to another, never knowing what will happen next.

This is where you step in.

Dallas CASA is an organization of volunteers who are voices for abused and neglected children in court. For many children, a CASA volunteer is the only constant during a frightening, uncertain time. Few volunteer roles have such a critical and immediate impact on the life of a child as that of a CASA volunteer.

Be the difference.

Volunteer.

To learn more about becoming a CASA volunteer or other ways to help, call 214-827-8961 or visit dallascasa.org

Volunteer.

You can be the difference.

Abused children need your help.

Every year, more than 20,000 Dallas County children are reported abused or neglected. Some of them must be removed from their homes because it isn’t safe for them to remain. Many enter foster care and wait for the complex, often lengthy process in which a judge will determine where they may safely and permanently live. During this time they may move from one temporary home to another, never knowing what will happen next.

This is where you step in.

Dallas CASA is an organization of volunteers who are voices for abused and neglected children in court. For many children, a CASA volunteer is the only constant during a frightening, uncertain time. Few volunteer roles have such a critical and immediate impact on the life of a child as that of a CASA volunteer.

Be the difference.

Volunteer.

To learn more about becoming a CASA volunteer or other ways to help, call 214-827-8961 or visit dallascasa.org

Volunteer.

You can be the difference.
IN DALLAS COUNTY:

more than 1,500
children are removed from unsafe homes each year.

more than 4,500
children live in the state’s protective care during the year.

Every abused and neglected child needs a CASA volunteer to advocate for his or her best interests.

Can you spare a few hours a week to change a life?

Be the difference. VOLUNTEER.

Learn more at dallascasa.org
Abused children need your help.

Every year, more than 20,000 Dallas County children are reported abused or neglected. Some of them must be removed from their homes because it isn't safe for them to remain. Many enter foster care and wait for the complex, often lengthy process in which a judge will determine where they may safely and permanently live. During this time they may move from one temporary home to another, never knowing what will happen next.

This is where you step in.

Dallas CASA is an organization of volunteers who are voices for abused and neglected children in court. For many children, a CASA volunteer is the only constant during a frightening, uncertain time. Few volunteer roles have such a critical and immediate impact on the life of a child as that of a CASA volunteer.

You can be the difference.

To learn more about becoming a CASA volunteer or other ways to help, call 214-827-8961 or visit dallascasa.org

What does it take to be a CASA?

It’s about helping a child.

Be the difference.

VOLUNTEER.

Every child’s family circumstances are different. Trained and supervised CASA volunteers help judges make informed decisions about each child’s future. Some children safely reunite with parents or relatives, while others make a connection with adoptive parents.

For CASA volunteers, the ultimate goal is to help ensure that all of these children live in safe, permanent homes where they can thrive.

Abused children need your help.

Every child’s family circumstances are different. Trained and supervised CASA volunteers help judges make informed decisions about each child’s future. Some children safely reunite with parents or relatives, while others make a connection with adoptive parents.

For CASA volunteers, the ultimate goal is to help ensure that all of these children live in safe, permanent homes where they can thrive.

Abused children need your help.

Every year, more than 20,000 Dallas County children are reported abused or neglected. Some of them must be removed from their homes because it isn’t safe for them to remain. Many enter foster care and wait for the complex, often lengthy process in which a judge will determine where they may safely and permanently live. During this time they may move from one temporary home to another, never knowing what will happen next.

This is where you step in.

Dallas CASA is an organization of volunteers who are voices for abused and neglected children in court. For many children, a CASA volunteer is the only constant during a frightening, uncertain time. Few volunteer roles have such a critical and immediate impact on the life of a child as that of a CASA volunteer.

What does it take to be a CASA?

It’s about helping a child.

Be the difference.

VOLUNTEER.

Every child’s family circumstances are different. Trained and supervised CASA volunteers help judges make informed decisions about each child’s future. Some children safely reunite with parents or relatives, while others make a connection with adoptive parents.

For CASA volunteers, the ultimate goal is to help ensure that all of these children live in safe, permanent homes where they can thrive.

Abused children need your help.

Every year, more than 20,000 Dallas County children are reported abused or neglected. Some of them must be removed from their homes because it isn’t safe for them to remain. Many enter foster care and wait for the complex, often lengthy process in which a judge will determine where they may safely and permanently live. During this time they may move from one temporary home to another, never knowing what will happen next.

This is where you step in.

Dallas CASA is an organization of volunteers who are voices for abused and neglected children in court. For many children, a CASA volunteer is the only constant during a frightening, uncertain time. Few volunteer roles have such a critical and immediate impact on the life of a child as that of a CASA volunteer.

What does it take to be a CASA?

It’s about helping a child.

Be the difference.

VOLUNTEER.

Every child’s family circumstances are different. Trained and supervised CASA volunteers help judges make informed decisions about each child’s future. Some children safely reunite with parents or relatives, while others make a connection with adoptive parents.

For CASA volunteers, the ultimate goal is to help ensure that all of these children live in safe, permanent homes where they can thrive.

Abused children need your help.

Every year, more than 20,000 Dallas County children are reported abused or neglected. Some of them must be removed from their homes because it isn’t safe for them to remain. Many enter foster care and wait for the complex, often lengthy process in which a judge will determine where they may safely and permanently live. During this time they may move from one temporary home to another, never knowing what will happen next.

This is where you step in.

Dallas CASA is an organization of volunteers who are voices for abused and neglected children in court. For many children, a CASA volunteer is the only constant during a frightening, uncertain time. Few volunteer roles have such a critical and immediate impact on the life of a child as that of a CASA volunteer.

What does it take to be a CASA?

It’s about helping a child.

Be the difference.

VOLUNTEER.
In Dallas County:

- More than 1,500 children are removed from unsafe homes each year.
- More than 4,500 children live in the state’s protective care during the year.

Every abused and neglected child needs a CASA volunteer to advocate for his or her best interests.

Can you spare a few hours a week to change a life?

Be the difference. Volunteer.

Learn more at dallascasa.org